Gaffer to give graduation speech

BY JOLIE CARRILLO AND ANTONY SORTO

Every year, an HHS staff member is bestowed the honor of giving a speech at graduation. This year, the class of 2024 selected Mitch Gaffer to speak.

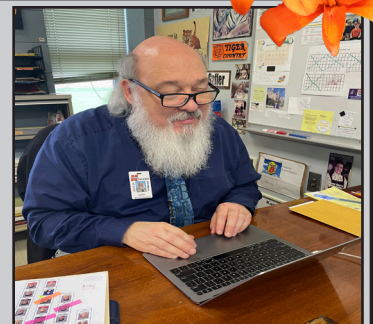

Gaffer is both excited and nervous. He said that he is glad to have been chosen to give one last address, seeing as next year will be his last at HHS.

In his speech, Gaffer hopes to help the seniors to realize how much influence they will have in the world. The speech is titled “One Kind Act at a Time.”

As this is not his first time delivering a graduation speech, Gaffer has a plan going into it. Advice he keeps in mind is, “Keep it short. Be profound. Keep it short.”

Mr. Gaffer is sure to deliver a thoughtful address that will leave the seniors with something to take with them as they start the rest of their lives.

Mitch Gaffer works hard on his graduation speech. He is thrilled to speak since the last time was about ten years ago.

HHS faculty retiring or resigning from positions

BY KELSEY SCHUCHHARDT

Michael Postma

Michael Postma has been a teacher at HHS for a whopping 28 years. During his employment, he has spent time teaching Animal Science, Companion Animals, Horticulture, Natural Resources, Ag Buisness, and Welding. He also was the advisor for FFA.

Postma is unsure about what he wants to do in the future and says that he will just wait and see what happens in his life. "I will miss the daily interatioins with students the most," stated Postma. He has always enjoyed having conversations with his students.

Teresa Smith

Teresa Smith has been a teacher at HHS for one year, but taught at HMS for many years prior. She is the choir director, so she teaches Prima Chorale, Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir, and the Madrigals. Smith prepares students for various concerts throughout the year, the most popular being the POPS concert.

Next year, Smith plans on relaxing and spending time with her new granddaughter, Cora. Although she is retiring, Smith will miss teaching her talented students. "This job was so fun for me! I will miss the students and staff," she exclaimed.

Cecille Forrest

Cecile Forrest has been a teacher at HHS for one year. She spent her short time in the school as a SPED teacher. She taught Life Skills/ Employability as well as Life Management and Community Experience. She also welcomed young students to HHS by being a freshman SRB teacher.

Next year, Forrest plans to go all the way back home to the Philippines. She hopes to continue her profession of being a teacher and to continue helping students. "I will miss my students and co-workers," said Forrest.

Mike Radke

Mike Radke has been the HHS principal for eight years, but had also been the assistant principal for five years prior to becoming the head principal. As principal, Radke oversaw school activities, managed staff, got to know all of his students, and much more.

Next school year, Radke plans to teach social studies and coach football and girl's wrestling at HHS. He has spent many years serving the school as principal and assistant principal, but his dedication towards the Huron School District will continue as he begins a new chapter in his career.

After countless days of serving the school, these staff members will move on to new beginnings in their lives. The students at HHS thank each of them for their abundance of hard work and dedication put towards helping students succeed.

Fave memory of a senior

BY CONNER JOHNSEN & CHASEY CHRISTENSEN

“After the Pierre SoDak game when me and Cashton Caudell and Chewy were just talking on the bus and telling ghost stories.”

-Anonymous

“When Kayleigh Bowden, Tatum Peterson, and I went to national FFA in Indianapolis.”

-Aspen White

“My favorite memory of a senior is going to All-State Band with Joy Trautman and Kelsey Schuchhardt.”

-Hailey Schoenfelder

“One of my favorite memories is with Samantha Swanson, Tessa Gogolin, and Mylie Byrd. We went to go watch the Aberdeen homecoming game, they were playing us, and it started absolutely pouring, lightening struck in their student section and everyone had to leave. We then had to run in the rain to Sam’s car.”

-Lily Halter

“My favorite memories are with Naw Htoo Pwe Htoo whenever she picks me up for practice or color guard because I like to waste her gas.”

-Say Glay

“Getting to watch all the senior football players work their tails off in the weeks leading up to the playoff game because they knew that it might be their last game and them leading everyone else on the team to give there all during that game.”

-Jeremy Hofer

Which senior do you look up to?

By Emma Ahlers & Erianna DeVries

"I look up to Aye Thwe...I look up to her because in marching band she showed me how unserious we can be while working our hardest. She also always told us she'd buy us chicken if we were to win best colorguard one competition. We ended up winning at one of our last competitions and I couldn't be more proud of her."

-Wai Wai Lin

"...I really look up to Dah Christ Moo. Overall, he's such a cool and amazing guy to look up to. He's always in a positive attitude and is a helpful, respectful, and kind person."

-Ywa Hae Klæe Ser Moo

"The senior I look up to the most is my sister, So Ro Paw. She's very involved with the school and she keeps me in check."

-Klo Paw

"I aspire to be like Gabriel Montoya because he's an interesting person and willing to try new things. He's kind to others and doesn't try to start issues. He keeps up with his academical work and tries not to procrastinate it."

- Eh Ja Beh Win
