Huron School District 2-2 Opt-Out History

| Year2005 | Description A two-year opt-out for taxes payable in 2006 and 2007 for $600,000 per year.                       | Disposition  An election was not scheduled and the voters did not refer.  This opt-out was designed to bridge the gap between years of declining enrollment and the anticipated enrollment surge connected with the opening of the turkey processing plant.   |
|---------------------|---|---|
| 2011                | A five-year opt-out for taxes payable in 2012-2016 for $1,500,000 per year.                                    | The voters referred the opt-out and it was defeated 54% to 46%. This opt-out was narrowly defeated. Voters were uncomfortable with the 5 year commitment, feeling this would take the pressure off the State to find a way to get more funding to schools.  |
| 2012                | A one-year opt-out for taxes payable in 2013 for $750,000  | An election was not scheduled and the voters did not refer.  The Huron School Finance Committee, comprised of local taxpayers with strong financial and business skills, studied the school's finances and recommended this opt-out. The committee felt is was important to opt-out for one year at time to keep pressure on the State to fund schools, to prudently use our reserves, to begin using some Capital Outlay flexibility, and to continue spending as conservatively as possible.  |
| 2013                | A one-year opt-out for taxes payable in 2014 for $600,000  | An election was not scheduled and the voters did not refer.  The Huron School Finance Committee met to continue their oversight of the school's finances. The committee still felt it was important to opt-out for one year at time to keep pressure on the State to fund schools, to prudently use our reserves, to continue using some Capital Outlay flexibility, and to continue spending as conservatively as possible. Recognizing the one-time money from the 2013 Legislature and the new ESL funding, the committee recommended a reduced opt-out. |
| 2013                | On September 9, 2013 the Huron School Board reduced the opt-out request for taxes payable in 2014 to $375,000. | The original opt-out for $600,000 was passed on June 24, 2013 to insure enough time to schedule an election, if needed. After the close of the fiscal year on June 30, the General Fund was re-examined. After analyzing the yearend numbers and the preliminary fall enrollment numbers the School Board decided to reduce the opt-out request.   |
| 2014                | A one-year opt-out for taxes payable in 2014 for $775,000  | An election was not scheduled and the voters did not refer.  The Huron School Finance Committee met to continue their oversight of the school's finances. The committee still felt it was important to opt-out for one year at time to keep pressure on the State to fund schools, to prudently use our reserves, to continue using some Capital Outlay flexibility, and to continue spending as conservatively as possible.  |
| 2014                | On September 22, 2014 the Huron School Board reduced the opt-out request for taxes payable in 2015 to 0.        | The original opt-out for $775,000 was passed on June 23, 2014 to insure enough time to schedule an election, if needed.
